Whether it's a typo, legal name change, or passenger name correction, American Airlines allows modifications under certain rules.

Why Name Accuracy Is Critical on American Airlines

Name accuracy is not optional—it's required for:

-  TSA and airport security verification
-  Domestic and international travel
-  Smooth boarding and check-in

Even small discrepancies like a missing middle initial or a typo can cause delays. If you want preliminary guidance on whether your ticket requires correction, call 1-844-993-2399.

Common Name Change Mistakes on American Airlines

1 Typos & Spelling Errors

Minor spelling mistakes are the most frequent reason for a American airlines change name request. Examples:

- “Jonh” → “John”
- “Micheal” → “Michael”
- Extra spaces or missing hyphens

Even small errors may delay boarding. For guidance, call 1-844-993-2399 to determine whether your correction is minor or major.

2 Using Nicknames Instead of Legal Names

Booking with nicknames (“Liz” instead of “Elizabeth”) can cause check-in issues, especially internationally.

If your ticket includes a nickname, call 1-844-993-2399 to get step-by-step guidance on correcting it.

3 Middle Name or Initial Errors

Missing, extra, or wrong middle initials can cause problems. This is common for international flights where the name must match the passport exactly.

Call 1-844-993-2399 for independent advice on how to correct middle name issues.

4 Reversed First & Middle Names

Booking as “Michael John” instead of “John Michael” can trigger boarding problems.

To fix this type of error, call 1-844-993-2399 for guidance on American’s procedures.

5 Last-Minute Changes

Trying to correct a name at the airport without preparation may result in denied boarding.

For urgent scenarios, call 1-844-993-2399 to know what documentation and fees are required
