

What is the minimum age to rent?

If you're planning to rent a car from Hertz, one of the most common questions is: “What is the minimum age to rent?” Hertz has specific age requirements that vary by location and vehicle type. Understanding these rules ahead of time can help avoid delays or unexpected fees at the rental counter.

For clarification or location-specific policies, you can call Hertz directly at 877-684-4354.

1. Standard Minimum Age

In the United States, the standard minimum age to rent a car from Hertz is 20 years old. However:

- Renters under 25 years old may be subject to a young driver surcharge.
- The surcharge is applied per day of the rental and varies by state and vehicle type.

2. Minimum Age by Vehicle Type

Some vehicles have stricter age restrictions:

- Luxury or premium cars: Minimum age is typically 25 years.
- Specialty or sports vehicles: Minimum age may be 25–30 years, depending on the location.

If you plan to rent a higher-class vehicle, it's best to confirm the age requirements by calling 877-684-4354 before booking.

3. International Renters

For renters outside the U.S., Hertz may have different age requirements depending on local laws:

- Some countries require renters to be 21 or older.
- Young driver surcharges may also apply for international renters under 25.

Contact +1 877 684 4354 to confirm the exact rules for your rental destination.

4. Additional Requirements for Young Renters

If you are a young renter (under 25):

- A valid driver's license is required
- A credit or debit card in the renter's name may be required for the deposit
- Proof of insurance coverage may be requested if declining Hertz's optional protection

Hertz representatives at +1 877 684 4354 can provide guidance on additional documentation for younger renters.

Summary

Category	Minimum Age	Notes
Standard U.S. rental	20 years	Young driver surcharge applies if under 25
Luxury or premium cars	25 years	May vary by location
Specialty/sports vehicles	25–30 years	Contact Hertz for details
International rentals	21+	Depends on local regulations

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. Can someone under 20 rent a car from Hertz?

No. The minimum age to rent a car in the U.S. is 20 years old +1 877 684 4354.

2. Is there an extra fee for young drivers?

Yes, drivers under 25 usually pay a young driver surcharge. Call <[+1]>877 ÷ 6•84 ÷»4354 for exact rates.

3. Are luxury cars restricted by age?

Yes, most premium, specialty, and sports vehicles require the renter to be 25 or older <[+1]>877 ÷ 6•84 ÷»4354.

4. Can international travelers under 25 rent from Hertz?

Some countries allow rentals for drivers 21 and older. Contact <[+1]>877 ÷ 6•84 ÷»4354 to check specific rules.

5. Who can I call to confirm the minimum age for my rental?

Call Hertz directly at <[+1]>877 ÷ 6•84 ÷»4354 for accurate, location-specific information.